

LUNAR NEW YEAR BOOK SUGGESTIONS

Check out some of our recommendations for books that can help everyone learn more about Lunar New Year celebrations!

FRIENDS ARE FRIENDS, FOREVER

BY DANE LIU, ILLUS. BY LYNN SCURFIELD

Based on Dane Liu's own immigration story, this book helps show how even our youngest of community members help share and pass down the unique traditions that make Lunar New Year special for each individual person.

ALL YEAR FOR ONE DAY

BY TIFFANIE LEE

On a bright morning, a little girl has been waiting All Year for One Day to celebrate her favorite Korean New Year's traditions with her beloved family. Join them as they come together and share with them in the festivities!

RUBY'S CHINESE NEW YEAR

BY VICKIE LEE, ILLUS. BY JOEY CHOU

In this book, the myth of the great race is reimagined into a modern fantasy, led by Ruby, a young Chinese American girl determined to give her grandma a gift for the new year.

TẾT TOGETHER

BY ALICE TRINH

Follow two siblings and their family as they prepare to celebrate Tết, or Vietnamese New Year. Join as the family cleans, cooks, and decorates all culminating in a celebration that embraces family and community.

OUR LUNAR NEW YEAR

BY YOBE QIU

This book highlights the many different ways that so many communities celebrate the New Year. Featuring the foods and traditions that many hold dear, this book features characters that celebrate Chinese New Year, Seollal, Tet, Songkran, and Diwali.

MINDY KIM AND THE LUNAR NEW YEAR PARADE

BY LYLA LEE

This early chapter book explores how one Korean American family celebrates Seollal in the face of loss and grief. As the first Seollal celebrated since the loss of Mindy's mother, Mindy is determined to continue on the traditions that her mother shared with her.

